

Every Child Ready Guiding Principles

AppleTree Institute for Education Innovation believes that early childhood classrooms should be engaging, intentional, and playful. The Every Child Ready instructional model is rooted in seven guiding principles. These guiding principles establish a foundation for development, implementation, and decision making that value the knowledge, needs, and experiences of children, families, teachers, and leaders.

