

The Leaps Student Voice Survey has been used to ask more than 40,000 students across the country about their experiences in school through the lens of Transcend's 10 Leaps for Equitable, 21st Century Learning. This survey indicated that Embark Education students consistently rate their experience at school higher than national norms.

Scroll through to see highlights from the data

Percentage of learners that experience active self-direction

Embark
Education

75%

National Benchmark

41%

Embark Education

84%

Survey Average

29%

% of learners who agree "At my school I have a say about what happens to me"

Embark Education

81%

Survey Average

36%

% of learners who agree that "At my school I have choices on different ways to complete my assignments"

Percentage of learners feel that learning is relevant

Embark
Education

68%

National Benchmark

37%

81%

Embark
Education

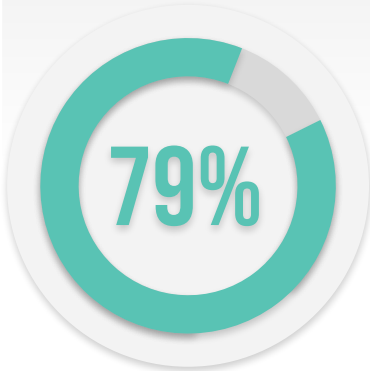

31%

Survey
Average

% of learners who agree that "At my school what we learn is often connected to life outside the classroom"

Percentage of learners that feel their learning environment fosters community & connection

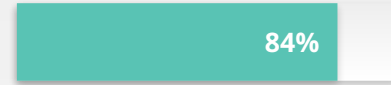

Embark Education

National Benchmark

Embark Education

Survey Average

% of learners who agree that "I feel part of the community. People at my school know and care about me"

Embark Education

Survey Average

% of learners who agree that "At my school I feel comfortable"

Percentage of learners that feel their schoolwork is rigorous

Embark
Education

88%

National Benchmark

49%

94%

Embark
Education

55%

Survey
Average

% of learners who agree that "At school we use our thinking skills, rather than just memorizing things"