

Unit: Develop Relationships | Lesson 1: Define Friendship

Enduring Understandings

Recognizing acts of friendship supports relationships

Acts of friendship are acts that help me build trust with another person

I can build trust with other people

Objectives

- I can learn to develop relationships, even when it is not easy
- Set a goal for recognizing acts of friendship

Preparation

- Create the reflection prompts in GiveThx
- Device with a web browser for every student and projector

Resources

- Lesson Slide Deck
- Competency in Action

Competencies

CASEL: Social Awareness, Relationship Skills

School: Friendship

Agenda

- (5 min) Discuss: Pair-share
- (5 min) Discuss: Whole- group-share
- (5 min) Reflect: Acts of friendship
- (5 min) Reflect: Examples of friendship
- (5 min) Act: Commit an act of friendship
- (5 min) Give: Recognize an act of friendship

Facilitation

- Discuss: In pairs, share what does friendship look like; What does it sound like? What are examples of acts of friendship?
- Discuss: In whole-group, share and record examples of friendship? Generate criteria for acts of friendship. Set a goal for recognizing acts of friendship
- Reflect: What is an act of friendship I have observed that has changed how I see things or do things?
- Reflect: What are examples of friendship I have seen this week? How do I know they are friendship?
- Act: Commit an act of friendship
- Give: Thank someone for an act of friendship you have been on the receiving end of